Free for Teens 13 - 18yrs

About

The YMCA of Boulder Valley and September High School have joined together to bring Boulder Valley teens the most comprehensive offering of free after school art classes available. YMCA BreakThrough Arts and September High School After Hours Arts provide a safe, drug-free place for teens to spend their afternoons exploring their creativity, connecting with caring adults and creating lasting relationships with their peers. With classes that are designed by teens, all youth have the opportunity to find their passion, build developmental assets and re-awaken their love of learning.
